Subject	REQUIREMENTS TO CONTINUE IN GRADUATE STUDIES - PAPER S.295 - DATE OF IMPLEMENTATION	Date	FEBRUARY 11, 1970

1. At its meeting of January 26, 1970, Senate approved paper S.295, on the understanding that the matter of date of implementation would be referred to the Senate Committee for consideration, and report to Senate.
2. On February 4, 1970, the Executive Committee approved a recommendation to the Senate Committee, which was accepted without change.

The Senate Committee recommends the following to Senate for approval:-

"That the date of implementation of Paper S.295, Requirements to Continue in Graduate Studies, be May 1, 1970 - with the provision that it apply to students registered in and after May 1970, to work taken after that time, but that it not be applicable to work taken before that time."

The intent is to apply the regulations on cumulative averages on work taken subsequent to May 1, 1970 but not before. It was noted that item iv, page 2, of Paper S.295 provides a mechanism for dealing with special cases, within the overall intent of the paper.
