MEMORANDUM

SM 1/5/68

Secretary of Senate

From John Matthews, Dean

Faculty of Arts

Subject Undergraduate Calendar Changes

Date April 22, 1968

The Faculty of Arts, on April 16, approved the following calendar changes:

(a) English Department - new course

300-3 - Literature in Translation

The study of major genres of Western Literature. Each semester the course will concentrate on one major form (Epic, Drama or Novel), including selections from ancient Greek and Roman Literature wherever possible.

(b) DML - removal of pre-requisite course

220-3 - Introduction to General Linguistics

Introductory survey to the field of linguistics and its relation to other disciplines.

(c) Psychology Department - requirements for Honors

A. Admission

Psychology majors who contemplate undertaking an Honors program in the Department must fill out an application from requesting entry into the program. This form is obtainable from the Departmental office. The qualifications for admission to Psychology Honors Program are:

- 1) Completion of 60 semester hours of University course work with a cumulative grade-point average of not less than 3.0
- 2) Completion of at least 18 hours of course work in Psychology with an over-all average of not less than 3.0 in these courses.

Curriculum Change

B. Continuing

To remain in the Honors Program in Psychology, the student must maintain a cumulative all-University grade-point average of at least 3.0 as well as a cumulative average of at least 3.0 in all psychology courses taken. If the cumulative grade point average (either all-University or for psychology courses) falls below 3.0, the student shall be sent a letter informing him that he has been placed on Departmental probationary status and stating the reason. If after one semester on probation, the student has not removed the deficiency, he shall be dropped from the Honors Program and will revert to the status of a general degree student.

C. Overall requirements

To qualify for the Honors degree in Psychology, the student must have completed a minimum of 18 credits in Psychology during the first four levels and 50 credits in Psychology or approved related courses during the last four levels.

Specific courses in Psychology must include 101-3, 201-3, 210-3, 220-3, 230-3, 240-3, 401-3; at least two honors seminars (exclusive of 401-5, 495-3, 496-5). In addition at least one three or four-hour credit course in the Faculty of Science (in addition to Math 101) is required.

This proposal is now submitted to Senate for consideration.
