

SM 11/9/67

Admission
Paper S-44

Failure to Complete

Course Through

Sickness

It was recommended by the Faculty of Arts at the July 27 1967, meeting that any student who is stricken by serious illness after the normal date for dropping a course, and who remains ill throughout the remainder of the course and the subsequent examination period, should have the right, with the approval of the Department offering the course, to have the course expunged from his record or recorded as WITHDRAWN--ILL.