DESCRIPTION

This course examines theories, principles and research from educational psychology that are applicable to teaching. It includes a significant "learning-to-learn" component in which students work with questionnaires and software tools to develop and reflect on their study strategies. Over the 13-week semester students will attend two lectures and one tutorial each week.

Evaluation

- Concept map (5%)
- Midterm examination (30%)
- Three-page study reflection paper (10%)
- Six-page think paper (25%)
