PREREQUISITE: 60 hours of credit.

DESCRIPTION

Multicultural education can be defined as:

"an education in which cultural diversity is seen and used as a valuable resource to enrich the lives of all, and in which every child has the chance to benefit from the cultural heritage of others, as well as his or her own."

This definition is the foundation of this course which is open to educators (student teachers, teachers, administrators and counsellors) who want to develop positive ways of working in multicultural communities. Role play, group discussion, case study, audiovisual and curriculum materials will be used to assist participants to develop definitions of their professional roles in a multicultural community, and activities and programs which will promote positive intercultural education.

OBJECTIVES

1. Develop an understanding of the meaning of culture and multicultural education.
2. Become familiar with multicultural resources (films, books, etc.)
3. Evaluate curriculum materials for stereotyping and bias.
4. Learn about the importance of cultural and racial background in shaping self-concept.
5. Identify techniques for learning about a culture other than your own.
6. Understand the negative impact of prejudice, discrimination and stereotyping and ways of combating these with positive programs and problem solving strategies.
7. Begin defining your own attitudes, feelings, and values about cultural diversity.
8. Become familiar through use of newspaper and media resources with issues in multicultural education and develop strategies for analyzing origins of conflict.
