COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides students with an introduction to major theoretical approaches underlying the work of counselors and educators working with persons with emotional and/or behavioural difficulties. The course will cover theories based on psychodynamic, behavioural, cognitive, existential-humanistic, feminist, systemic, and post-modern frameworks.

EVALUATION

Assignments in the course will provide students with an opportunity to become familiar with a variety of theoretical approaches, their implications for understanding human behaviour and experience and their applications in counseling interventions. Detailed descriptions of assignments will be distributed at the first class.
