

Education 461-4 Trends and Developments in Educational Practice (S.I.T.E.)

SUBTITLE: New Developments in Counseling in Education

SUMMER SESSION 1983

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. B. Berenson

Tuesdays & Thursdays 1:00 - 4:50

LOCATION: on campus

Outline of Topics:

1. Input - Process - Output
2. Toward a Comprehensive Helping/Training Model
3. Teaching/Training as Treatment
4. An Expanding Role for the Counselor: A Comprehensive Intervention System
5. Criteria for Effective Human Resource Development Models
6. Components for Taking the Initiative
7. Interpersonal Skills for the Counselor: Getting Ready
8. Interpersonal Skills for the Counselor: Being Responsive and Initiative
9. Managing Human Resource Development: Planning
10. Inclusive and Exclusive Systems: Implications for Counseling
11. Introduction to Human Technology
12. A Vision of the Future

Books:

Carkhuff, Robert.
The Art of Helping (5th ed).
Human Resource Development Press
Amherst, Mass.

Carkhuff, R.R, and Berenson, B.G.
Beyond Counseling and Therapy,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, N.Y., N.Y.
2 nd Edition, 1977.