

Education 441-4
Cultural Differences & Education

Spring, 1986
Mondays, 4:30 - 8:20

Instructor: Dr. Kelleen Toohey
Location: MPX 9511

This course includes sections on the social dimensions of multi-culturalism, the psychological dimensions of multiculturalism, curriculum development in multi-cultural education, and specific issues (Indian education; community control and parental choice and Second Language Programs). It is of interest to those concerned with the history and current status of minority ethnic groups in Canada, and either preparing to be a teacher or already teaching.

Textbooks Required:

Werner, W., Connors, B., Aoki, T & Dahlie, J. Whose Culture? Whose Heritage? UBC Centre for the Study of Curriculum and Instruction

Lee, Enid. Letters to Marcia