

Education - 491 - 2

Directed Studies - A Tutorial Project

Instructors:

Marylou Fritch - Prince Rupert D 2.00 (15)
Mary Ann Lawrence - Terrace D 3.00 (15)
Willie Gordon - Smithers D 4.00 (15)

Semester 91 - 1

Objectives:

1. To plan, implement and evaluate a tutoring project in language arts.
2. To develop systematic observational skills
3. To develop understandings of the principles of teaching and learning.
4. To interact professionally with others in the educational community.
5. To begin the process of analysis and evaluation of student performance.

---

Evaluation Criterea

Participation: Includes attendance at class, attendance at observations, active participation in seminars, completion of tutoring project.

Assignments: Timetable for project implementation
Observation notes and analysis.
Learning log: record of lesson plans
lesson evaluation
summary of project
Final paper: Literacy and Learning

Texts: Johnson, T.D. & Louis, D.R. (1985). Literacy through Literature. Methuen, Australia.
Cochrane, O. (1985). Reading, Writing and Caring. C.E.L. Group, Inc., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Scholastic.