

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT

Simon Fraser University will be offering the following course in Prince George during the 1984 Fall semester (September - December):

EDUCATION 325-3 MEASUREMENT AND EVALUATION IN TEACHING

Description:

Basic principles of test theory applied to the use of measures in education; construction and use of classroom tools for measuring achievement of educational objectives, including observation methods, standardized tests, overview of contemporary local and provincial evaluation programs.

This course is designed to increase the skills of teachers regarding the construction, evaluation, and selection of educational assessment procedures. While there is a large body of theory in this area, we will focus more on applied principles than on theory.

Instructor: Dr. Tom O'Shea

Textbook: Gronlund, N.E. Measurement and Evaluation in Teaching (4th ed.).
New York: Macmillan, 1981.

Class Schedule: The class will meet every second week, likely Friday evening and Saturday morning, for 6 sessions (total contact hours = 36). To be confirmed.
