COURSE NUMBER: Education 472

COURSE NAME: Designs for Learning: Language Arts (Primary)

INSTRUCTOR: Kathy McInally

TIME: M W 8:30 - 11:20
      F   8:30 - 10:20

PLACE: 5040 AQ

OBJECTIVES:

1. The student will gain an understanding of language development in the early childhood years.

2. The student will become familiar with the B.C. Language Arts curriculum for the primary years.

3. The student will read about, study and discuss teaching strategies useful in implementing the primary Language Arts curriculum.

4. The student will become familiar with materials useful for teaching the primary Language Arts program.

RECOMMENDED TEXT

Logan, L.M., Logan, V.G. and Paterson L. Creative Communication: Teaching the Language Arts, McGraw-Hill Ryerson, New York, 1972.

A List of suggested reading material will be available at the first session.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Each student will be expected to complete a term project and other minor assignments related to course objectives.