

EDUC. 480-4 DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: FRENCH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

SPRING, 1982

INSTRUCTOR: André Obadia

Monday, 4:30 - 8:20

LOCATION: on campus

This course is intended for teachers of French as a second language at the Elementary and Secondary levels (a different course is presently being designed for French Immersion teachers).

This course deals with a variety of methods including the functional approach, suggestology and some intriguing concepts of Dr. A. Tomatis, the inventor of the electronic ear.

The students will also learn to use error analysis techniques and to adapt their teaching techniques to the specific needs of learners.

The general nature of the course will focus on practical applications of various approaches using as support documents Vive le francais, Bonjour Canada, R.S.V.P., Passeport francais, Le Francais international.

For more information call André Obadia at 291-3166 (or 291-4344) Faculty of Education, Simon Fraser University.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

Elementary and Secondary teachers of French as a second language. The course can be used for both degree completion and towards an Extended Studies Diploma Program.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Chastain, Kenneth, Developing Second-Language Skills: Theory to Practice (2nd ed.). Rand McNally College Pub. Co., Chicago, 1978

Rivers, Wilga M., A Practical Guide to the Teaching of French. New York, Oxford University Press, 1975