DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: PHYSICAL EDUCATION

SPRING, 1985

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. G. Kirchner

Wednesdays, 3:30 - 7:20 p.m.

LOCATION: Prince George

PREREQUISITE: Education 401/402

This course is designed to introduce practicing teachers to a variety of new content and our teaching strategies currently used in the elementary school physical education program. The course will include demonstration lessons, lecture and/or workshop sessions and bi-weekly in-school and written assignments. The course will emphasize the following topics:

1. Teaching creative and cooperative games.
2. Blending gymnastic and movement education programs.
3. Integrating Physical Education with other subject areas.
4. Teaching rhythmic and creative folk dance.
5. Teaching active health to children.

Bi-Weekly Assignments:

During the two weeks between the on-site days, teachers will be assigned three tasks:

- 1) previewing films
- 2) planning, teaching and evaluating three sequential lessons
- 3) pre-reading chapters relating to the next topic.

Evaluation

Evaluation will be based upon film critiques and the design, presentation and evaluation of five sets of sequential lessons.
