DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: LANGUAGE ARTS (Secondary)

INTERSESSION 1980

INSTRUCTOR: David Booth

Tuesday and Friday, 8:30 - 12:30

This course will examine various methods and materials used in the study of English at the secondary level, along with an exploration of recent trends in teaching English. Curriculum planning, methods of evaluating students' progress, strategies or promoting reading and use of the media, and techniques for developing students' oral and dramatic skills will be considered. Attention will be paid to the basic aims of teaching writing, the place and treatment of grammar, and work study. The course will review the various methods of presenting literary forms such as the novel, the play and the short story.
