

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

EDUCATION 467

SECTION 03

INTRODUCTION TO TEACHING ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Summer Session 1982 (July 5 - August 14)

INSTRUCTOR: Earl D. Wyman
OFFICE: Building 1, No. 110
OFFICE HOURS: by appointment (make arrangements at class)
LOCATION OF CLASS: MPX 9511
TIME OF CLASS: Monday and Thursday 1:00 - 4:50

Instructor's Objectives:

To assist students towards the goal of being able to:

1. Understand the nature of teaching English as a Second Language.
2. Assess the needs of the E.S.L. learner.
3. Establish an environment where E.S.L. teaching and learning can better occur.
4. Initiate and direct appropriate E.S.L. activities.
5. Promote on-going language-learning activities.
6. Engage in meaningful professional development while pursuing a career in E.S.L.

Course Objectives:

Students will be exposed to:

1. Some Basic educational principles which are especially important to T.E.S.L.
2. A sampling of cultural variations which can be significant in T.E.S.L.
3. Recent approaches and methods from which the eclectic can draw.
4. A few techniques used in each of the four skills - listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
5. The role of testing in T.E.S.L.
6. Factors involved in goal selection, objective writing, and lesson planning.
7. Principles involved in textbook and material selection.
8. Factors involved in the second-language learner's success.
9. Publications, organizations, and habits which can aid the E.S.L. teacher
10. Specific ways audio-visual aids can assist the E.S.L. teacher and/or learner.