

EDUCATION 468

RECENT ADVANCES IN THE TEACHING OF ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Instructor: Professor Gloria P. Sampson

Prerequisite: Education 467

Three new teaching methods which are very different from those currently in use in the public schools will be studied in this course. Students in the course will read about them, demonstrate them on videotapes they will make, and analyze their effectiveness as shown on the demonstration videotapes.

The videotapes will be team projects. Each student will write an individual paper as well to accompany the videotapes. There will be no exams.

The three innovative TESL methods are: (1) The Silent Way, (2) Counselling-Learning and (3) Suggestopedia.

Student readings will be from TESL journals and the following three main texts:

Caleb Gattegno. Teaching Foreign Languages in Schools:

The Silent Way. N.Y.: Educ. Solutions, 1978.

C.A. Curran. Counseling-Learning in Second Languages.

Apple River, Ill.: Apple River Press, 1976.

Georgi Lozanov. Suggestology and Outlines of Suggestopedy.

N.Y.: Gordon and Breech, 1978.
