Name of Program or Name of Faculty

Indigenous Studies Major

Rationale for change:

Changes to align with the Senate-approved Department Name Change from Department of First Nations Studies to Department of Indigenous Studies (S.20-3) and acronym change from FNST to INDG (S.19-124, p. 14-25) effective Fall 2020.

When the first SFU program with Indigenous content was founded in Kamloops in 1993 (to then be expanded on Burnaby mountain in 1998), the community suggested First Nations Studies. This name was a departure from the names of other long-standing programs across the country, such a Native Studies at Trent University, Indian Studies at the Saskatchewan Federated Indian College, and Native American Studies at the University of Lethbridge. At the time, the term “First Nations” was seen as preferable to the other options because it resonated with decisions by such bodies as the Canadian National Indian Brotherhood to change its name in the 1980s to the Assembly of First Nations. “First Nations” implied cultural and political sovereignty and a rejection of names imposed by the State.

At the time, typical Canadians would not have immediately recognized that the term "First Nations" is exclusive, as it does not include Metis or Inuit people. Faculty in this Department recognize that this is the time to adopt a name that is more inclusive, reflective of diversity, and recognized internationally. Therefore we have changed our name to Indigenous Studies (INDG).

Effective term and year:

~~First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies Major

BACHELOR OF ARTS

This bachelor of arts (BA) degree program is for those who are interested in focusing and expanding their expertise in this discipline. Students will gain detailed insight into the cultures, histories and contemporary developments of Indigenous peoples in British Columbia and North America. Students will develop a solid foundation in the study of Indigenous issues from a variety of disciplinary approaches.

Program Declaration

Students seeking admission into an ~~an First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies Academic Program must demonstrate competency in a minimum of three FNST INDG courses at SFU with an average subject grade of C or better. Completion of FNST INDG 101 and FNST INDG 201W prior to declaring a FNST INDG program is recommended.

Students who have successfully completed three or more FNST INDG courses should contact the Department Advisor (~~fnstmgr@sfu.ca~~) to review eligibility and program completion timeline.

Program Requirements

Students should plan their program in consultation with the ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies advisor.

Lower Division Requirements

Students complete a minimum total of 15 units, including

First Nations Indigenous Studies Minor

This program studies traditional and contemporary issues involving ~~Aboriginal~~ Indigenous peoples of North America and Canada in particular. Designed for both ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous and ~~non-First Nations~~ non-Indigenous students, its focus is on ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous knowledge, cultures, languages, ~~Indigenous knowledge~~ and histories, as well as "~~Indian-White~~" relations, the development of federal and provincial policy toward ~~Aboriginal~~ Indigenous peoples, ~~Aboriginal~~ Indigenous rights and title questions, economic development and self-government. The minor critically presents and examines these issues with the perspectives of ~~Aboriginal~~ Indigenous peoples, and will present research methods pertinent to past, present and future issues affecting ~~Aboriginal~~ Indigenous peoples.

This program may be completed in conjunction with any major honours bachelor's degree, or as part of a Bachelor of Arts degree with two minors. Students should plan their program in consultation with the ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies advisor.

Program Declaration

Students seeking admission into an ~~an First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies Academic Program must demonstrate competency in a minimum of three FNST INDG courses at SFU with an average subject grade of C or better. Completion of FNST INDG 101 and FNST INDG 201W prior to declaring a FNST INDG program is recommended.

Students who have successfully completed three or more FNST INDG courses should contact the Department Advisor (~~fnstmgr@sfu.ca~~) to review eligibility and program completion timeline.

First Nations Indigenous Studies POST BACCALAUREATE DIPLOMA

Through ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies courses and courses from other disciplines, the program provides in-depth knowledge of ~~Aboriginal and~~ Indigenous issues including First Nations cultures and Indigenous knowledge, historical contexts, natural and cultural resource management, and legal and public policy issues. Learners engage in dialogue and discussion around these issues and evaluate them, considering ~~Aboriginal~~ Indigenous perspectives. This program is comprised of at least 30 units of upper division or graduate level courses.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must have a bachelor's degree or equivalent. Students can apply for entry in the fall, spring or summer terms. Consult with the ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies advisor for admission deadlines.

Program Requirements

The post baccalaureate diploma (PBD) program can be completed through full-time or part-time study. Upon University admission, students must be approved for entry and must complete a PBD course plan. Completion is expected within two or three years, to a maximum of five years, with a 2.5 GPA in all diploma courses. Transfer credit may be approved if it meets the program requirements, and at least 18 of the 30 required units are completed at Simon Fraser University. Transfer credit application must be initiated at the time of University application. Credit applied to this program may not be applied to another Simon Fraser University certificate, diploma or degree, or vice-versa. Students should plan their program in consultation with the ~~First Nations~~ Indigenous Studies advisor.
