

SENATE SUMMARY

MEETING OF FEBRUARY 5, 2024

1. Report of the Chair

The Chair acknowledged that February is Black History Month, and this year, SFU has adopted the theme Building Connections for Black Flourishing in alignment with its commitment to the Scarborough Charter.

As per an announcement last week by Board of Governors Chair Angie Lamarsh, the Chair reported that she has been reappointed for another five-year term as SFU's president and vice-chancellor.

The Chair thanked Board and Senate members who attended the recent Board-Senate retreat. The session featured breakout exercises to discuss how Board and Senate should collaborate. Out of that discussion came some proposed rules for strengthening collegial governance, including:

- Operate for the greater good of the university.
- Seek to understand – consult, listen, trust each other.
- Drive to a decision – structured interactions, solid data, ask hard questions, challenge the status quo.
- Establish effective structures – engage early, improve communication.

Discussion also centered on ways for Board and Senate to connect around the approval process for the SFU Medical School. Given that both Board and Senate have separate roles to play regarding the approval process, and not wanting to duplicate or undermine these structures, the respective chair of each governance body is proposing that two members of the Senate Committee on University Priorities (SCUP) be designated to join the budget working group of the Board to engage in a discussion related to the medical school so that key concerns can be discussed prior to the approval process.

The Chair reported that the Board of Governors seeks to develop new terms of reference for itself. The Board currently has its terms of reference embedded in a policy, and as such, movement is afoot to remove the Board's terms of reference from a policy and have it determine its own procedures, much like Senate does. There is a requirement through Policy B. 10.00 for the community to be consulted, and given this, the repeal of policy B 10.02 (Terms of Reference for Board Standing Committees) will be coming out into the broader community in the future.

The Chair thanked those who attended the Faculty and Staff Town Hall last week to hear an update on the budget from Vice-President, Finance, Martin Pochurko, and Vice-President, Academic, Dilson Rassier. The University is working closely with the provincial government to understand what the international visa cap will look like for SFU and to make sure letters get sent out to international students.

The Chair reported that work is ongoing to welcome the Royal Society to SFU in November for the 2024 Celebration of Excellence and Engagement. A planning committee has been struck, led by Dugan O’Neil, Vice-President, Research & International.
