RE: Calendar Entry Language Change for PhD Program in GSWS

The following program calendar language change was discussed and approved by the Chair of GSWS and the Graduate Chair Program Chair in an executive committee meeting on December 7, 2022.

We are proposing a minor update to the language in the calendar description of the PhD thesis requirement in order to better reflect the name and focus of the department. The current language only includes women and gender, however our department name and focus is women, gender, and sexuality.

Included here is a Calendar Entry change form.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

Best,

A. Coleman Nye
