COURSE DESCRIPTION

Effective classroom assessment should provide accurate and meaningful information about learning for the teacher, the student, parents and administrators. This aspect of teaching may well be one of the most challenging for you, as a classroom teacher. This course will support you in developing an understanding of traditional assessment strategies as well as those commonly referred to as authentic assessment strategies. The specific topics include: teaching and learning outcomes, strategies for assessing classroom processes and environments, strategies for assessing student learning and understanding (formal, informal, published tests and teacher-constructed), interpreting the information gathered, providing learner feedback and marking, communicating results to parents and administrators.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. Demonstrate your ability to develop an appropriate assessment strategy for various student learning outcomes and processes by selecting and/or designing the necessary tools and/or environments.
2. Demonstrate your understanding of the issues involved in effectively communicating assessment results to students, parents and administrators.
