MEMORANDUM

ATTENTION Senate DATE March 6, 2017
FROM Jo Hinchliffe, Associate Registrar
Senate and Academic Services
RE: ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE REPORT 2015-2016

This report covers terms from September 2015 to August 2016. The revised Academic Honesty and Student Conduct Policy effective May 2009 requires reporting of academic dishonesty incidents to the Registrar's office.

There are 44 active Academic Integrity Advisors representing all programs, departments and faculties coordinated by the Academic Integrity Coordinator in the Registrar's office. The Academic Integrity Advisory Committee reports to the Registrar and 2015-2016 members included: Rebecca Goyan, (chair) Donna McGee-Thompson, Kris Nordgren, Rummana Khan Hemani, Jo Hinchliffe, Mary-Ellen Kelm, Rob Gordon, Michael Lockett, Dean Diamond and Toby Donaldson.

The Academic Integrity Coordinator in the Registrar's office collects and compiles data regarding academic dishonesty cases from units across all three campuses. Thirty-three different academic units reported incidents in this time period.

Between September 2015 and August 2016, 327 incident report forms were filed in the Registrar's office. 41% were related to international visa students, down slightly from the previous year but still a concern. (2015-16 fiscal year international students made up 18% of the university total student headcount).

14 cases involving repeat offenders were identified through the central database and dealt with either by the Registrar's Office or the Academic Unit Head following established policy.

Table 1 below lists the most common types of incidents that occur and Table 2 details the breakdown of penalties assigned. Table 3 looks at the breakdown of incident reports by Faculty.

Type of Incident:	September 2014 to August 2015	September 2015 to August 2016
Plagiarism Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Student submitted a reading response that was plagiarized from an online essay. - Student pasted in sentences from a website and claimed that the passages were from book reviews. No references for posted images. - Student submitted a solution to the programming project that was substantially derived from an online source without any citation of this source. 	118	169
Cheating on exams or assignments Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - observed to have something hiding in sleeve during midterm exam, turned out to be a cell phone - During in-class quiz, student was writing two quizzes with different names on them. - Student did not submit homework on time, emailed screenshot showing submission, but the screenshot was doctored, student hadn't logged in until the day after the due date. 	112	153
Fraud/Misrepresentation Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Student submitted falsified medical documents to defer exams - Changed answers on test after marks received and asked for grade change. 	2	5

MEMORANDUM

ATTENTION Senate DATE March 8, 2017
FROM Heather Roberts, Student Conduct Coordinator PAGES 2
RE: Annual Report on Student Conduct:
September 1, 2015 through to August 31, 2016

According to the policy S10.02 - Principles and Procedures for Student Discipline, “The Registrar and the Associate Vice-President Students or designate must maintain a statistical summary of cases handled through their offices each year, and these data must be included in the Annual Report to Senate on Student Discipline Matters.” The Academic Integrity and Good Conduct Office (AIGCO) serves as the designate for the Associate Vice President Students in the response to reports of student misconduct. This report does not include repeated incidents of Academic Dishonesty by the same student (these are included in the accompanying report on Academic Discipline). This report covers the period of September 1, 2015 to August 31, 2016.

The following table and figures provide an overview of the 25 unique incidents deemed to be student misconduct by the AIGCO in this reporting period. The total number of incidents has decreased compared to last year (17% decrease), potentially due to the position of Student Conduct Coordinator being vacant for two months of this reporting period (one day/week coverage during these two months).

Table 1 provides a four-year history of the cases dealt with under Policy S10, categorized by type of incident.

Table 1 – Misconduct Cases by Type from 2012 to 2016

	2012/2013	2013/2014	2014/2015	2015/2016
Disruptive or Dangerous Behaviour	18	12	13	10
Damage, Destruction or Theft	8	18	4	2
Fraud and Misuse	3	3	3	4
Violation of University Policies	0	15	2	4
Firearms or Other Weapons	0	1	2	1
Illegal Conduct	0	1	4	0
Unauthorized Entry or Presence	0	0	2	4
Misuse of Disciplinary Procedures	0	0	0	0
TOTAL	29	50	30	25

Of the 25 cases of student misconduct during this reporting period, 20 incidents involved domestic students, while 5 cases involved international students.

Table 2 provides a comparison of incident rates by academic level. According to the 2015-2016 reporting period data, 2nd year students are 50% more likely to be reported for misconduct than 3rd year students. By comparison, no misconduct cases involved graduate students.

Senate Committee on Disciplinary Appeals

Reporting Period
September 2015 – August 2016

The Senate Committee on Disciplinary Appeals (SCODA) heard two appeals during the period covered by this report, both cases involved plagiarism.

SCODA Appeal No. 2016-01 (plagiarism)

This case involved a graduate student. After the submission of a draft of the MA thesis, it was discovered that a portion of the thesis had been plagiarized. A subsequent investigation into earlier work completed in the graduate program revealed further and substantial amounts of plagiarism.

The department assigned grades of “FD” for the course work, which led to the student being asked to leave the program due to lack of normal progress. The student appealed the two FD grades based on University Policy S10.04, 2.1(iii), “that the penalty imposed on the student is excessive in all the circumstances of the case.”

After considerable deliberation over the arguments made by both sides, SCODA found in favor of the department.

SCODA Appeal No. 2016-02 (plagiarism)

This case involved an undergraduate who received a zero on an assignment in a first year course for four statements misattributed to a particular author, two mis-cited sources, and one use of an author’s work without citation. The student appealed the grade based on Policy S10.04, 2.1(iii), “that the penalty imposed on the student is excessive in all the circumstances of the case.”

SCODA found that the plagiarism had taken place, and that the professor had clearly laid out in written documents the criteria and punishments for academic dishonesty. The professor clearly stated that instances of plagiarism would receive up to zero on an assignment based on the seriousness of the case.

Given no mitigating factors in the case, SCODA upheld the penalty.
