

3m 11/9/67

Calendar

Paper S-36

Admission to the Honors Program

On page 55 of the Undergraduate Calendar, in place of paragraph 1, insert the following:

Honors programs are intended for students of outstanding ability who wish to do additional work in the area of their particular interest. Students applying for admission to an honors program should normally have achieved a B average at least in all course work. Other students with a good record may be admitted provisionally.