

EDUCATION 407-5: IMPLEMENTATION PRACTICUM IN DEVELOPMENTAL SUPERVISION

Spring semester, 1988
Seminars: Wednesday evenings
Location: To be announced

Instructor: Pat Holborn
Office: MPX 8639
Phone: 291-4770 (o)
931-7282 (h)

ELIGIBILITY

This professional inservice practicum is a follow-up course to Education 496: Developmental Supervision of Student Teachers. The practicum is available only to classroom teachers who have completed Ed. 496 (or 490 in 84-3) and who have agreed to sponsor an Education 405 student teacher during the spring semester. REGISTRATION MAY BE LIMITED BY DISTRICT DUE TO DISTRIBUTION OF FACULTY ASSOCIATE SUPERVISORY LOADS. PLEASE CHECK WITH MR. STEVE OLLIVER AT 291-3167 FOR FURTHER INFORMATION.

OBJECTIVES

Participants in this inservice practicum will effectively:

- (a) Implement the developmental supervision model with an Education 405 student teacher;
- (b) Contribute to inservice seminars focused on collegial support and problem-solving;
- (c) Develop, implement and evaluate individualized plans for professional growth in the four dimensions of the school associate's role;
- (d) Communicate with the Inservice Associate regarding development of supervisory skills;
- (e) Complete a reflective self-evaluation of professional growth during the practicum.

COURSE FORMAT

The practicum has three components: (i) classroom implementation of developmental supervision with a student teacher; (ii) regular inservice seminars with other Education 407 school associates to discuss and resolve supervisory problems and to provide collegial support; (iii) enrichment activities such as peer classroom visits, skills practice sessions and guest speakers. Content of seminar agendas will be determined cooperatively by the group.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- (a) Attendance and participation in seminars and enrichment activities;
- (b) Completion of at least four professional development contracts, each focusing on one dimension of the school associate's role;
- (c) Participation in consultation visits with the supervising Inservice Associate;
- (d) Completion of a reflective self-evaluation at the end of the semester.

EVALUATION

THE PRACTICUM IS EVALUATED ON A PASS/WITHDRAW SYSTEM.

FEE REBATES

Participants will receive a tuition fee voucher for supervising an S.F.U. student teacher. Vouchers may be applied toward practicum fees. For further information call Renate Doege at 291-4358.