

Education 422-4
Learning Disabilities

Fall, 1986
Tuesdays, 4:30 - 8:20

Instructor: Dr. Bernice Wong
Location: AQ 3150

=====

This course focuses on the following aspects of learning disabilities: Conceptual and definitional; characteristics of learning-disabled students; informal assessments of reading and arithmetic; memory and social problems of the learning-disabled and instructional needs of learning-disabled students in primary, intermediate and secondary grades.

Grading:

Grading will be based on student performance on:

midterm exam	30%
final exam	30%
essays (two)	20% (each)

Required Text:

D.P.Hallahan, Kauffman, Lloyd. Introduction to Learning Disabilities.
2nd Edition, 1985. ISBN: 0-13-485541-8-0178