

EDUCATION 424
LEARNING DISABILITIES LAB
COURSE OUTLINE
D100
Summer Semester 2009

Dr. Maureen Hoskyn
Office: EDB 7641
Phone: 778-782-5808
Email: mhoskyn@sfu.ca

Thursday 8:30-12:20 EDB 7600B
Tutorials July 6-24 only
D101 EDB 7600 9:00-10:30 Mon-Fri
D102 EDB 7600 10:30-12:00 Mon-Fri

Objectives:

Education 424 provides SFU students with an opportunity to provide individualized instruction to children with learning disabilities. In the Summer 2007 lab, SFU students will be responsible for a.) conducting an informal assessment of each child's learning difficulties and b) providing intervention for one hour/day during the tutorial sessions in the summer. Some visits to children's home schools will be required prior to the summer tutorial. All Education 424 students will be required to obtain a criminal record check prior to working with the children.

Pre-requisite (or concurrent): Education 422

Time requirements:

Each SFU student will be required to attend a lecture as indicated as well as commit to a one hour daily tutorial session, beginning Monday, July 6 and continuing Monday to Friday until Friday, July 24th. Each SFU student will sign up for one time slot at time of registration, on a first-come, first-serve basis. PARTICIPATION IN THE DAILY TUTORIAL IN JULY IS MANDATORY. For each day that an SFU student does not attend (with or without a reasonable excuse) 10% of the total marks for the course will be deducted.

Course assignments:

Assessments	25 marks
Class assignments	35 marks
Lesson Plans	15 marks
Final report	25 marks

Course texts: Orchestrating Success in Reading
Dawn Reithaug