

CRS. cancelled X

EDUC. 461-4 TRENDS & DEVELOPMENTS IN EDUCATION

SPRING, 1982

INSTRUCTORS: Dr. Selma Wassermann
Dr. George Ivany

Monday, 4:30 - 8:20

LOCATION: on campus

DESCRIPTION:

This course is offered for a selected group of teachers who wish to increase their teaching effectiveness in the areas of elementary science and the development of critical thinking skills.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- (a) to train teachers in effective classroom teaching strategies in teaching science
- (b) to promote more positive attitudes towards science and science teaching
- (c) to promote curriculum development in the area of science teaching
- (d) to establish the natural connection between science learning and the promotion of critical thinking skills
- (e) to broaden teachers knowledge base in respect to scientific principles and content

READINGS:

IVANY, George, Today's Science.

BRANDEWEIN, Paul, Sourcebook for Elementary Science.

RATHS, Louis, et al. Teaching for Thinking: Theory and Application.

WASSERMANN, Selma, Put Some Thinking in your Classroom.