

MEMORANDUM

To..... SENATE

From..... SENATE COMMITTEE ON UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Subject..... CHANGES - DEPARTMENT OF
SOCIOLOGY/ANTHROPOLOGY

Date..... APRIL 3, 1985

Acting under delegated authority at its meeting of April 2, 1985 the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies approved -

Change of course description for -

- S.A. 363 Social Change in the Third World
- S.A. 368 Economic Anthropology
- S.A. 369 Political Anthropology
- S.A. 464 Urban Anthropology

CALENDAR REVISIONSDEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY/ANTHROPOLOGY

Change of course description only

P. 211 S.A. 363-4 Social Change in the Third World

FROM: An examination of social change in specific developing countries.

TO: An examination of theories of social change pertaining to areas usually classified as 'the Third World' and illustrated by specific contemporary socio-political issues.

P. 211 S.A. 368-4 Economic Anthropology

FROM: An examination of the economic systems of tribal and peasant societies with special reference to organization or production, exchange, gifts and markets; entrepreneurship.

TO: Anthropological perspectives on systems of production and change.

P. 211 S.A. 369-4 Political Anthropology

FROM: Comparative study of primitive and tribal political organization; leadership in non-centralized and centralized political systems.

TO: Anthropological perspectives on political systems and processes in traditional and modern societies.

P. 212 S.A. 464-4 Urban Anthropology

FROM: An analysis of the contribution of anthropologists to the study of urbanization. Particular attention will be paid to the social relationships between the metropolis and its hinterland, as well as to processes of adaptation of incomers to the city from different milieux

TO: An anthropological analysis of urbanization and social life in urban centres. The focus will vary from semester to semester, but might include such topics as the relation between the metropolis and its hinterland, the processes of adaptation undergone by urban migrants, and the generation of distinctive urban cultures.

RATIONALE: These descriptions have been changed in order to bring them more in line with the actual content of the courses.