RE: Request to Reinstate POL 839

Political Science would like to request the reinstatement of POL 839, "Comparative Development," in the Calendar and on SIMS. This course was temporarily withdrawn effective September 2015. We plan to offer it again in 2017. Our rationale for doing so is that both our faculty complement and graduate student body have grown. We forecast greater demand for graduate courses and now have more faculty members to teach them.

Thank you very much.
