SAMPLE

POL 223 ~~Canadian-American~~ Political Economy (3)

~~An introductory study of America's~~ Canada's political economy, stressing the interrelated nature of Canada's economic and political life. ~~The course~~ Focuses on current economic problems and policies, taking into account the geographical, historical and political environments. Topics include the resource and industrial structures, research and development, the public sector, fiscal and monetary policy, the role of the state, trade and foreign ownership, energy, regional disparity, corporate concentration and the political economy of federalism.

~~This course is identical to CNS 280 and students cannot take both courses for credit.~~

Students with credit for CNS 280 cannot take POL 223 for further credit.

Recommended-Pre-requisite: POL 100 or 101W.

Breadth – Social Sciences.

RATIONALE

If more space is needed, please use the provided text box on page 2 of this document

When originally proposed, the paperwork for LBST 230 erroneously indicated that course repeats should NOT be allowed. In actual fact, since this is a special topics course, the Program intended to allow both course repeats and repeats within the same term as long as the course topic was different. We are now correcting the error.
