Graduate Studies Committee,
 Faculty of Arts.
 Subject: Miss Doreen Dell Texmo.
 66600 - 8385

From: Professor R. J. Baker,
 Head, Department of English.
 Date: January 26, 1968.

The Department of English recommends that Miss Texmo be awarded the degree of M.A.. She was awarded a B.A. Cum Laude by Western Washington State College on the 10th of December 1965. She successfully completed 15 course-hours of graduate study in English at that same university in late 1965 and early 1966, and a further 3 course-hours at St. Hilda's College, Oxford, under sponsorship of the University of Massachusetts, in the summer of 1966. She was admitted to graduate studies in this department in our 1966 Fall semester and successfully completed a five-hour course, as follows:

English 810 Studies in the Literature of the United States B

She subsequently completed her Master's thesis, and on the 4th of December successfully defended it. Its title is:

"Joyce Cary's Concept of the Imagination."

Her examining committee comprised the following:

- Chairman: Professor R. J. Baker (Head, Department of English, S.F.U.)
- Dr. M. Page (Department of English, S.F.U.)
- Dr. S. Black (Department of English, S.F.U.)
- External Examiner: Dr. R. Harper (Faculty of Education, S.F.U.)
