

SUMMER SEMESTER 2005 COURSE OUTLINE
EDUC 326-3 (EDUCATION)
CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT AND DISCIPLINE

C100

The main goal of this course is to enable you to design positive classroom experiences where you and your students can engage in meaningful work together.

To assure that you meet this goal:

The course design shows you how to create meaningful and respectful relationships with students. The course also demonstrates the importance of doing worthy work together: work that is worthy of the people doing it and that can be accomplished successfully in the time frame available. The course illustrates specific ways you can create a classroom that is a safe and comfortable space in which students and teachers with common goals can work successfully together. The course introduces you to four models of classroom management, with an emphasis on the constructivist model.
