

EDUCATION 422-4: LEARNING DISABILITIES

Fall Semester, 1987
Sept. 8 - Dec. 4
Tuesdays, 4:30 - 8:20

Instructor: Dr. Bernice Wong
Location: AQ 3150

PREREQUISITES

60 hours credit, Education 220 or equivalent instruction. Psychology courses are recommended.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course covers conceptual, psychological and social aspects of learning disabilities. It also deals with assessments of reading and arithmetic problems of learning disabled students. A detailed course outline will be distributed first day of class.

REQUIREMENTS

2 tests of 30% each
2 essays of 20% each

REQUIRED TEXT

Daniel Hollahan, J.M. Kauffman, & J.W. Lloyd. Introduction to Learning Disabilities (2nd Ed.) Prentice-Hall, 1985.